

The Daily Courant.

Friday, February 28. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 26.

Venice, Feb. 5.

L E T T E R S from the Terra firma advise, that the most wealthy Inhabitants of the Bressan, &c. retire into the Territories of the Republi^k of Genoa and elsewhere, because the German Troops observe so little Discipline. Several of the Nobility and of the principal Citizens of Milan, are retir'd to Bergamo, Cremona, and Brescia, fearing the Disorders that may be occasion'd by the Siege of the Castle of Milan, in case the Imperialists attack it in Form: They own themselves that that Enterprize is difficult, and that to succeed in it they shall have occasion for near 20000 Men, and a numerous Artillery, unless they would make a tedious Work of it. The Imperial Troops that are employ'd in the Blockade of Cremona, have so ruin'd the Country, that a great many of the Inhabitants have been oblig'd to leave their Houses, carrying away their Moveables, &c; so that the said Troops suffer extremely. General Toralba is extraordinary vigilant for the Preservation of Cremona: He has disarm'd Part of the Inhabitants, expell'd all suspected Persons, and has newly by Sound of Trumpet commanded all Strangers to depart the City, which they have accordingly done: He causes the Guards and Sentinells to be often reliev'd and chang'd: As for Provisions, he has given such good Orders notwithstanding the Blockade, that those who are come out of the City report Corn is still at a very moderate Price in it. 'Tis advis'd from the Polcines and the Ferrareze that the French Garrison of Mirandola had summon'd the Inhabitants of the Modeneze to pay them Contributions, threatening otherwise to raise them by military Execution: That the Imperialists oppos'd it, undertaking to protect and assist the said Inhabitants: And that the Garrison of Mirandola have since made several Excursions, and taken a great Number of Prisoners and much Booty. The French continue Masters of Ostiglia and of the Banks of the Po from the lower Oglio. The 24th of last Month the Count of Cremona Resident of Mantua, notified to the Senate, that the Duke his Master was arriv'd at Verona, and Advice is since come that he is arriv'd at Vicenza and Padua under a Guard of some Troops of the Republi^k: He is daily expected here. The same Day, the 24th, the Bishop of Wormia arriv'd here from Rome, accompanied by the Palatine his Brother with his Wife and Children. The Pope's Nuncio immediately sent him a magnificent Present of Refreshments: The next Day the Bishop waited on him to give him Thanks, and the Nuncio has return'd the Visit.

Paris, Feb. 26. The 22d of this Month the King went into Mourning in Purple, for the Death of the King of Portugal. The Marthal Duke de Noailles having voluntarily laid down his Commission of Captain of the first Troop of the Scotch Life Guards, his Majesty has given it to his Son the Duke de Noailles Lieutenant General. The Marquis de Puiseux, Ambassador of France to the Swiss Canton, is made a Councillor of State. 'Tis talk'd the Province of Languedoc will be oblig'd to take off 8 Millions of Mint-Bills, that of Britany as many, Burgundy 4, and Provence 2. The Academy have caused the following Notification, concerning the Prizes of Eloquence and Poetry which they are to bestow this present Year, to be made publick.

The French Academy gives Notice to the Publick, that on the twenty fourth Day of August 1707, being the Feast of St. Lewis, they will give the Prize of Eloquence founded by M. de Balzac of the French Academy. The Subject shall be, That Man can have no true Happiness, but in the Practice of Christian Virtues. The Discourse must not take up above Half an Hour in Reading at most, and must end with a short Prayer to Jesus Christ.

No Discourse shall be receiv'd that has not an Approbation sign'd by two Doctors of the Faculty of Divinity of Paris, and actually residing in it.

The same Day, they will give the Prize of Poetry founded by M. de Clermont de Tonnerre, Bishop and Count of Noyon, Peer of France, and one of the 40 Members of the Academy: The Subject shall be, That the King's Wisdom renders him superiour to all Manner of Events. To this it will be allow'd to joyn any other Subject of Praise, upon any particular Action of the King's, or on all together, provided the whole Poem do not exceed 100 Verses. A short Prayer to God for the King must be added, distinct from the Body of the Poem, in such Kind of Verse as each Writer shall choose.

All Persons shall be allow'd to compose for both Prizes, except the Forty Members of the Academy, who are to be the Judges.

The Authors shall not put their Names to their Pieces, but Marks or Cyphers, with a Passage out of the holy Scripture for the Discourse in Prose; and any Sentence they think fit to the Piece in Poetry.

Those who put in for these Prizes, shall be oblig'd to deliver their Pieces before the End of May, into the Hands of the Abbot Regnier, perpetual Secretary of the French Academy.

Hague, March 1. Letters from Stockholm of the 16th of last Month, tell us, that M. Otto Adolphus Paikul was beheaded there the 14th. He was a Native of Sweden, and a Lieutenant General of the Saxon Troops of King Augustus. By the Court of Justice of Stockholm he was among others condemn'd the 17th of December 1702, for acting in Arms as a Rebel against his Sovereign, and consequently adjudg'd to have forfeited his Life and Estate. In 1705 he was taken Prisoner in Poland fighting against the Swedes, and sent to Stockholm. The King of Sweden did not think fit to cause him to be put to Death pursuant to the former Condemnation in 1702, but order'd his Cause to be fairly try'd in January 1706; when he was convicted and condemn'd agen by the foresaid Court of Stockholm; and after a Year's Reprieve, obtain'd by the Solicitation of great Friends, was at length executed.

Notwithstanding divers Plaisters, &c. are publish'd pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate that noble and effectual Plaister (publish'd by the first Author) which not only presently removeth the Anguish thereof, but likewise deadneth them to the root, insensibly and safely; being distinguish'd with a Seal, having this Motto, Art finds means. To be had only of Mr. Scampton at the Angel in Cornhill over against the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland House in the Strand, Toy-shops, at 1 s. per Box, call'd up with Directions.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seetons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above said for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookfeller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.

A Peculiar and very extraordinary Remedy for Vapours and Melancholy, being a Pleasant Elixir to be taken in Drops, 2 or 3 Doses of which Momentarily appeaseth the most Direful and worst of Symptoms possible, even when advanced to that Degree as to render the Patients crazed and almost out of their Senses; and if continued never fails Eradicating the Cause of those Diseases, tho' of never so many Years standing: Let none therefore despise this Medicine, nor despair of Cure till they have tried it, 'tis Safe and Innocent, has given such Relief as is scarcely to be imagined, and cured many when given over by several eminent Physicians. To be had only at Mr. Spooners at the Golden-half Moon in Buckle-street in Goodmans-Fields near White-Chappel, price 3 s. 6 d. the Bottle, with directions.
